Meat, Mates and Marinades

It's that time of Year Again. Time to find out which Independent Retail Butcher makes the best sausage and ready to eat meat products in Queensland?

Once again, Queensland's butchers will be showing their expertise and challenging each other in the Queensland Sausage King and AMIC Butchers Choice Competition.

The Sausage King competition is in its 14th year now, with each year a growing range of new sausage varieties. The categories the butcher will enter their sausages in are: Traditional Australian, Traditional Australian Pork, Poultry, Australian Lamb/Open Class, Continental, and Gourmet/Open Class.

Winner from each of the sausage categories in there Region then will go onto the State Finals. Winners from the State Sausage King competition then will go up against the other State Winners and compete for the National Title

Queensland successfully won 3 National titles and a second place at the National Sausage King titles held at the Gold Coast in February 2010. The National competition was fierce, with butchers from all over Australia competing for the ultimate prize of "Best Sausage" in 6 categories and each winner crowned "Sausage King"

In its 7th Year, the AMIC Butcher Choice competition is a new style of competition to let the Independent local butchers enter their ready to eat meat products. They will enter their products into the following categories: Meat Pie/Pastry Product, Wet Meat Dish Product and Value Added Meat Product

Winner from each of the AMIC Butcher Choice categories in there Region then will go onto the State Finals. The Competitions are held in 6 regions across the State starting in February through to June.

Join in the fun on Saturday 16th June at the Big Rig Information Centre at 2 Riggers Road Roma when Roma hosts the 2012 Outback Regional Sausage King and AMIC Butchers Choice Competition.

Take a stroll around the pristine gardens at the Big Rig which will also be hosting the Roma Farmers and Artisans Markets with more than 40 arts, crafts and food stalls. The Roma Rotary Club will be cooking donation sausages for the public. For the kids there will be train rides around the area, a jumping castle, a merry go round and face painting.
