

Cele Brosnan played some vintage tunes at the Weengallon Pink Ladies Day.

continued from page 1

Sullivan, was bought for $950 by St George Machinery Centre. Sue Prince from St George paid $800 for the bra creation by Di Elsdon from Tosari Galleries Toowoomba.

The Dirranbandi Bridge Club paid $1,100 for the well sprung creation by the Dirranbandi Arts Council upholsterers.

The final bra work called 'Cups of Hope' painted by Jenelle Kerr from Rabobank Goondiwindi was bought for the record breaking price of $2,100 by Helen and Graham Wippell from St George Mitre 10.

The piece will be hung in the Weengallon Pink Ladies Day Room at the Olive McMahon Lodge in Toowoomba which provides free accommodation for country cancer patients.

Summing up the day, Weengallon Pink Ladies Day co-ordinator, Kellie Mitchell said, "Our wonderful team have worked together to bring a little bit of paradise to this red dust siding. Besides the incredible funds our day raises for charity, it is such an amazing feeling to bring such delight to the lives of 500 ladies for one day."

Words and photos by Sally Nichol Rigney

Guest speaker Raelene Boyle with Emma Montgomery

Weengallon Pink Ladies Day Kitchen Ladies Bec McIntosh, Fiona Jones, Cathy Hill, Lisa Southern, Fiona Carrigan and Jo Knights bought the Broncos bra.

Goondiwindi girls Jayne Webster, Michelle Klein and Trysh Morris.

A vertical advertisement for CRC Electrical. At the top is the CRC Electrical logo, which includes a stylized plug icon. Below the logo, the text reads: "Electrical. Refrigeration & Air-conditioning Domestic. Commercial. Rural & Industrial". Further down, it says "To enquire please call (07) 4627 7009". At the bottom, there is a DAIKIN logo and contact information: "ABN: 85 133 913 818 BSA Licence: 1168509" and "Electrical Contractor Licence: 70211 ARCTick Refrigerant Authorisation: AU22222". The bottom of the ad features the text "Now Servicing Roma Areas" in a large, bold font. The background of the ad has a metallic, industrial aesthetic with rivets and bolts.